

Dr. Paul Biluan's remarkable journey began in the Philippines, where he pursued his passion for nursing and embarked on a mission to transform the lives of Internationally Educated Nurses (IENs). Today, he stands as a trailblazing leader, educator, and visionary in the world of nursing, empowering countless IENs to achieve the American Dream through innovative education and unwavering dedication.

Dr. Paul's own educational journey is a testament to his dedication and passion for nursing. He holds a Doctor of Nursing Practice from Texas Christian University, a bachelor's degree in nursing from Far Eastern University - Dr. Nicanor Reyes Medical Foundation, and a master's degree in nursing from Our Lady of Fatima University. He is an advanced practice registered nurse, a certified family nurse practitioner, and has completed a post-graduate certificate course for nurse educators.

A staunch advocate for diversity, equality, and inclusion, Dr. Paul educates and inspires through his innovative "DrNursePaul Show" on Facebook and YouTube. He is passionate about promoting safe staffing ratios, nursing pay equality, workplace violence prevention, fair recruitment, and anti-human trafficking initiatives, ensuring IENs have access to the opportunities and support they need to succeed in their chosen careers.

As a proud member of numerous esteemed organizations such as Sigma (Nursing Honor Society), Association of American Nurse Practitioners, American Nurses Association, Texas Nurse Practitioners, and Society of Internationally Educated Nurses of North America, he continues to champion for the betterment of IENs and the nursing profession.

With a powerful combination of expertise, experience, and empathy, Dr. Paul Biluan remains steadfast in his mission to empower IENs to realize their American Dream. As a beacon of inspiration in the nursing world, he continues to make a lasting impact on the lives of countless IENs, paving the way for a brighter future in nursing.
