

Opeyemi Adeyi is a registered nurse with 13 years of work experience under her belt. She has worked in various areas of nursing from public health, HIV research, palliative nursing, and gerontology. In 2016, she moved to Canada for a post graduate program in Palliative Nursing with Niagara College, Ontario and has been growing professionally and experientially. She rose from the ranks starting as Continuing Care Assistant, to Licensed Practical Nurse, to Registered Nurse, to Nursing Services Manager, and presently as Director of Healthcare Services. She completed her BSN degree from Ladoké Akintola University of Technology, Nigeria, her MS in Family Studies and Gerontology from Mount Saint Vincent University, Nova Scotia, Canada, and currently pursuing a PhD in Nursing at Dalhousie University in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada.

Opeyemi has proven ability to remain calm under pressure and skillfully handle high-stress situations. Her focus is on developing therapeutic relationships with patients and families through effective communication, respectful attitude, and excellent customer service. She is a highly motivated and driven nursing professional while at the same time being a compassionate, caring nurse who is comfortable working with people of all backgrounds.
