

Vimal Kurian is a registered nurse with over ten years of leadership experience in the Canadian healthcare sector. His experience includes working in the remote Inuit communities of Nunavut as a Registered Nurse and Supervisor in charge to a Senior Leader (interim Chief Nurse Executive and Corporate Director of Quality and Performance) of Yee Hong, one of the largest non-profit Long Term Care organizations in North America and an award-winning organization for corporate culture.

Mr. Kurian's lived experience as an internationally educated nurse (IEN) in Canada and his knowledge of health human resource needs and challenges across North America is a valuable asset to any healthcare organization. Aside from being an internationally educated nurse leader practicing in Canada, he is also one of the selected LinkedIn Nurse Leaders in 2019 recognizing his global contributions to the profession. He currently works for multiple non-profit organizations, serving on non-profit Board, and as an Accreditation Surveyor with Accreditation Canada and Accreditation International. He is active with social enterprise to help IENs and Canadian healthcare organizations.

Mr. Kurian is currently pursuing his MBA in Health Unit Administration from Cyprus Institute of Management BVI and obtained his nursing degree at Shekhar Nursing College Bangalore, India.
